

fluorochemical excellence
shaping the future

Glass

Hydrofluoric acid is used with sulphuric acid in polishing of complex grinding patterns and the removal of stains on crystal glasses to give a sparkling finish. Hydrofluoric acid and ammonium bifluoride are also used to etch glass objects to give a frosted appearance for products such as frosted light bulbs, perfume bottles, beverage bottles and decorative patterns on glass surfaces.